

What You'll Need

- Pencils/pens
- Paper
- A short paragraph (that all players are able to read)

Instructions

- Get into pairs of two.
- Pick one person to be the “runner” and one to be the “writer.”
- Place as many copies of the short paragraph as there are pairs somewhere outside of the room.
- Make sure the writers have paper and pencil.
- The runner goes out of the room, reads a bit of the short paragraph and comes back into the room to relay it to his or her partner (the writer) as fast as possible.
 - Remind them to relay the words quietly so other teams cannot hear.
- Runners should continue until the entire paragraph is written down.
- The first team to finish is the winner.
